

Same Old Places

Glen Campbell

I always see her
In the same old places
And it breaks my heart in two
To see her smiling
To see her laughing
With someone new

I'd give anything
To win her back again
But I destroyed her love for me
Just like a crazy fool
I broke love's sacred rule
And now, she's gone from me

And so you see me
At the same old places
Everywhere we used to go
Oh, how I'd give anything
To be with her again
At the same old places

Anywhere we used to go
I'd go with you
