

Maya

Glen Phillips

I want the woman who would want me
Velvet temple of her body
Seeing lovers crushed together
Doesn't make it any better

Maya, maya
Kiss me through the veil
I won't be ungrateful

I see angels gathered 'round me
Lips of raspberry, breasts of honey
Tear me open, sanctify me
Find the beauty that's dying inside of me

Maya, maya
Kiss me through the veil
I won't be ungrateful
I won't be ungrateful

Oh, the hunger of this body
Is insatiable, ever wanting
Just tear me open and rip it from me
Fill me up again or give me nothing

Maya, maya
Kiss me through the veil
I won't be ungrateful
I won't be ungrateful
