Save Me Tonight (I'll Be Waiting)

Glenn Hughes

I don't know where I'm goin'
But I know where I've been
They say love conquers all
So please let me in

You say that you want me
Til' the end of time

I know I've been wrong
Let me be right
I'll be waiting
Now I'm on my way
Save me tonight
I'll be waiting

Just a little bit of faith
And a whole lot of trust
In a world filled with peace that belongs to us

And you know I would die for you
And you know it's the truth
So why don't you give yourself to me

I know I've been wrong
Let me be right
I'll be waiting
Now I'm on my way
Save me tonight
I'll be waiting

And it really doesn't matter
And I know you'll see
But with your hope and your faith and destiny
Save me

I know I've been wrong
Let me be right
I'll be waiting
Now I'm on my way
Save me tonight
I'll be waiting
