

Too Late to Save the World

Glenn Hughes

I hear the drums they're fading fast We live in days of future past It's all in your mind

You stand outside the pearly gates You pray to god that he awai ts A life so divine

You feel that you've been let astray And this could be your dar kest day It's all very sad

You dream of Edgar Allen Poe You fall into the hell below It's all that you've had That you've had

You never win, you never win It's too late to save the world Yo u never win, you never win It's too late to save the world Too late to save the world

The tenements have fallen down You're looking for some higher g round You go slightly mad

But they will come in the disguise It's time to open up your ey es It's all very sad...Very sad
