

Sometimes

Glenn Medeiros

Yeah gettin' older, (older, older, older)
Wish I could hold you like I did when I was young.
Have you forgotten, (forgotten, forgotten)
lost just like the flailing light of the sun.
Into the night....
deep in the darkness,
is it me that you
miss, (miss, miss, miss, miss, miss)
Some..... times....
when you feel as cold as ice,
knowing that you're only left with moments locked in time.

I.....I was blind to ever think of leaving.
Now I face the chance of never looking in your eyes.

I have visions,
of the way it could be
and I want to, need to, love to take you
here to stay with me.....
Ahh-ahh
People change....
but you'll always be
an angel.....
to me, to me, to me, to me, to me,
Some.... times.....
when you feel as cold as ice....
knowing that you're only left with moments locked in time.

I.....I was blind to ever think of leaving.
Now I face the chance of never looking in your eyes.

Sometimes.....
do you feel as cold as ice
knowing that you're only left with moments locked in time.

(I was blind) I was blind to ever think of leaving.
And now I face the chance of never looking in your eyes.

Some.... times....
when you feel as cold as ice...
knowing that you're only left with moments locked in time.

I.....I was blind to ever think of leaving.
Now I face the chance of never looking in your eyes.

Some.... times....
do you feel as cold as ice?
Knowing that you're only left with moments locked in time.
