

Ain't Worth It

Glenn Travis

Whoa whoa

I just wanna scream
This ain't the kinda dream
We should be living happily
But we're a tragedy

'Cause you so crazy, girl I can't stand ya
So impatient, can't get a handle
What was I thinking, don't even matter to me

'Cause I don't think that you love me
Baby this ain't working
You try to hide how you're hurting
But this just ain't worth it
I don't think that you love me
Baby this ain't working
You try to hide how you're hurting
But this just ain't worth it

Yeah, this just ain't worth it nah
Ay, this just ain't worth it

I been on my knees
I wanted to believe
That we were really meant to be
But now I see

'Cause you so crazy, girl I can't stand ya
So impatient, can't get a handle
What was I thinking, don't even matter to me

'Cause I don't think that you love me
Baby this ain't working
You try to hide how you're hurting
But this just ain't worth it
I don't think that you love me
Baby this ain't working
You try to hide how you're hurting
But this just ain't worth it

I don't think that you love me
Baby this ain't working
You try to hide how you're hurting
But this just ain't worth it
I don't think that you love me
Baby this ain't working
You try to hide how you're hurting
But this just ain't worth it

Yeah, this just ain't worth it nah
Ay, this just ain't worth it
