Bad Guy

Glenn Travis

I hear the footsteps coming
All through the darkness, running
Ain't nowhere, I save myself this time (this time)

I didn't want to be pushed this far
Dust intentions ain't worth the cost
I'm losing ya, but I made a mistake (ooh)

I guess I didn't care
What I was supposed to say
I guess you're right this time

I guess I'm the bad guy
The reason you're having this sad night
You're always point it to make me the bad guy
But you just making yourself cry (cry)

I feel the way tears falling
I hear the deaf horse blowing
Ain't nowhere we can stay alive
I did the best I could
To keep you warm, I would break down wood
I know I treated you good
And you did better than she could

But I didn't want to be pushed this far
Dust intentions ain't worth the cost
I'm losing ya, but I made a mistake (ooh)

I guess I didn't care
What I was supposed to say
I guess you're right this time

I guess I'm the bad guy
The reason you're having this sad night
You're always point it to make me the bad guy
But you just making yourself cry (cry)

I guess I didn't care
What I was supposed to say
I guess you're right this time

I guess I'm the bad guy
The reason you're having this sad night
You're always point it to make me the bad guy
But you just making yourself cry (cry)
