

Breathe

Glenn Travis

I just wanna breathe air
I can't wait 'til I get there
I'm dreaming
I can't wait 'til it's all real
I'm falling
I'm not breaking focus
I just wanna breathe air
I can't wait to see myself

Yeah, apply myself, told 'em all I'd make it killin'
Up-and-coming, that's my status now
Never took no hand-me-outs
On tour, different city every night, yeah
Had to ditch my ex 'cause she ain't understand this life, no
I meditated, chilling, lately I ain't stressed
A hundred million plays from my bedroom, that's a flex, ayy
Nowadays people see me as a threat, 'cause
I might steal their girl, homie you ain't gotta sweat

No distractions, y'all could keep the hoes
Music keep me 'live, been through things that you don't know
She might catch some feelings, but she keep that on the low
If she gets too close then she know I gotta go, yeah
On a path where I don't know my fate
Sorry momma, yo son never played it safe
To the day that it happens, I'ma grind 'til it's real
I just wanna breathe air, can you feel?

I just wanna breathe air
I can't wait 'til I get there
I'm dreaming
I can't wait 'til it's all real
I'm falling
I'm not breaking focus
I just wanna breathe air
I can't wait to see myself

Nowadays the numbers got me losing sleep
I delete that unless it streams right
Forget 'bout our dreams, right?
Wish I could go back when the views ain't mean shit
Just love, just creating, didn't need shit
When I was hyped on the 'gram for a month
Now I get 12k, and it isn't enough
I lost track of why I'm here
I lost track of who I am
But I'm coming back
Yeah, I'm coming back

I know I'm alive
Sure can't hide my reflection
And I gotta let it shine
For the people in darkness, I can
'Cause Lord knows I've been through it all, just like you
Sometimes when I'm looking up skies ain't always blue
But I don't care

I'm breathing
I can't wait 'til I get there
I'm dreaming
I can't wait 'til it's all real
I'm falling
I'm not breaking focus
I just wanna breathe air
I can't wait to see myself

I can't wait to see myself, yeah
I can't wait to see myself
