

Don't Forget Her

Glenn Travis

Yeah, yeah, ay

How many times do you
Have to fall asleep at night
With tears on your face
And girl, I know your pain (I know that you know that)
But you gotta fight it
Even when the sun is shining
Just know your strength
It'll all be okay, yeah

You know you're beautiful
Don't you ever doubt yourself (yeah)
You got it on your own
You don't need nobody else (ay)
'Cause a queen is a queen
It don't matter 'bout the other cocks
You a nation by yourself
You should have

What you want (ay)
What you need
Bitch you're perfect and good enough
You need a real love
Just be patient
It won't fall apart
To take a look in the mirror
Don't you forget her, yeah

Keep your head high
But don't forget who you are
The truth that you got up your heart
Don't 'bout who's talking
Or what they say
You're amazing
Just know your strength
It'll all be okay

You know you're beautiful
Don't you ever doubt yourself (yeah)
You got it on your own
You don't need nobody else (ay)
'Cause a queen is a queen
It don't matter 'bout the other cocks
You a nation by yourself
You should have

What you want (ay)
What you need
Bitch you're perfect and good enough
You need a real love
Just be patient
It won't fall apart
Just take a look in the mirror
Don't you forget her, yeah
