Something Simple

Glenn Travis

Na-na-na
Na-na-na
Ay
Ay

Your heart is warm, so sacred inside
When you cry you still make all the flowers grow
I just suffer when I don't see you
Yeah, I want you to say yes

Girl, will you say that to me?
So I can go on and say yes to you
I just wanna be there for you, for you, for you
Baby, every time I need to, ay

I'll give you pleasure, give you peace of mind (peace of mind, peace of mind
)
And I'll give you all my love and all my time (all my time, all my time)
There ain't no pressure, if it's what you want

Then baby, let's just do somethin' simple
Simple, simple
We don't got to rush nothing
You're gonna like this, won't regret it
Don't fight it
All I'm tryin' to do is somethin' simple
Simple, simple

Your mind was gone, so much in your head
Your disguised beauty but you're stronger than men
They don't know 'bout what you been through
So I need you to say yes

Girl, will you say that to me?
So I can go on and say yes to you
I just wanna be there for you, for you, for you
Baby, every time I need to, ay

I'll give you pleasure, give you peace of mind (peace of mind, peace of mind
)
And I'll give you all my love and all my time (all my time, all my time)
There ain't no pressure, if it's what you want

Then baby, let's just do somethin' simple
Simple, simple
We don't got to rush nothing
You're gonna like this, won't regret it
Don't fight it
All I'm tryin' to do is somethin' simple
Simple, simple

Baby, let's just do somethin' simple
Simple, simple
We don't got to rush (to rush) nothing
You're gonna like this, won't regret it
Don't fight it
All I'm tryin' to do is somethin' simple

Simple, simple
