

Superstar

Glenn Travis

Of all the things that I could say
I'd rather tell the truth
I fight my demons night and day
Still, tryna cut 'em loose
Of all the things I came across
I'm glad that I crossed your path
And I found a princess and you don't know

But you a superstar to me
I know you think that it's only me
But you a superstar, baby
Like yas, you queen, ooh, that's all I need

I step aside look at you tonight
Under a light, you don't need me next to you
Take bein' bad to a whole new level
Yeah, I'm the man that's gon' take your heart
I'm lucky, right?
Everybody wants you here but you mine
Got all the bitches insecure
I applaud and I adore, yeah

Of all the things that I could say
I'd rather tell the truth
I fight my demons night and day
Still, tryna cut 'em loose
Of all the things I came across
I'm glad that I crossed your path
And I found a princess and you don't know

But you a superstar to me
I know you think that it's only me
But you a superstar, baby
Like yas, you queen, ooh, that's all I need

You better be by yourself
You don't like much attention
But they still hold they breath
When you pull up it's just different
Yeah, yeah, girl you gettin' all the lines all the time for me
You stay looking like a dime in a movie scene
And it's just you and me, yeah
It's just you and me

Of all the things that I could say
I'd rather tell the truth
I fight my demons night and day
Still, tryna cut 'em loose
Of all the things I came across
I'm glad that I crossed your path
And I found a princess and you don't know

But you a superstar to me
I know you think that it's only me
But you a superstar, baby
Like yas, you queen, ooh, that's all I need
That's all I need, yeah

That's all I need
