

Tragedy

Glenn Travis

Ooh ooh... yeah yeah...

Baby, space has been silent, its safer to ride
When you hold me tight play this song at the party
Baby girl, you know you got it and I want it
I wanna do something we ain't before
Sit back and I'll soothe you Imma bout to make you so full open up

Girl, I hate it when we're apart, need you onside of me all the time
girl every night
I just wanna be your man I know there ain't no questioning
You got my heart, I never wanna separate

I could love you for eternity
If you left that'd be a tragedy can't get enough of you
I could love you for eternity if you left that'd be a tragedy
And I just can't take it no more, Lord knows that I can't leave you a lone cus I need you
I could love you for eternity if you left there'd be tragedy, uhh
I'll give you everything you want just as long as you don't go

Aww baby, ohh baby, aww baby, ohh baby

I just wanna love on you all damn night, you know you fine
From the back to the front lets take our time you love the way we do it
I move your body I rock you till you fall asleep and in the morning w e're making love too
Its all for me can't nobody touch it, beat it top til you can't move
I liked what I seen so I had to ask around about you
I knew that you was feeling me so I couldn't stop baby you knew what I had to do
Now you're in my room

Girl, I hate it when we're apart, need you onside of me all the time
girl every night
I just wanna be your man I know there ain't know questioning
You got my heart, I never wanna separate

I could love you for eternity
If you left that'd be a tragedy can't get enough of you
I could love you for eternity if you left that'd be a tragedy
And I just can't take it no more, Lord knows that I can't leave you a lone cus I need you
I could love you for eternity if you left there'd be tragedy, uhh
I'll give you everything you want just as long as you don't go
I could love you for eternity if you left that'd be a tragedy
And I just can't take it no more, Lord knows that I can't leave you a lone cus I need you
I could love you for eternity if you left there'd be tragedy, uhh
I'll give you everything you want just as long as you don't go

Aww baby, ohh baby, aww baby, ohh baby
