

What Happens Next

Glenn Travis

Don't you feel me and you underneath the bridge
'Cause there's still time left [?] no

Do you believe in fairy tales just like this, do you? (Do you?)
'Cause this one's real because we're riding it

And baby, I just wanna back in
Ain't gotta go too fast with it
And I know it's taking long
But baby we can be straight cash with it
Get [?] split it
Yeah I know it's taking long but...

Baby it'll be worth it
You know we deserve this, yeah
It'll be perfect, for you

Wait till you see what happens next
I'm gon' give you my heart
You ain't gon' give it back
We gon' fall deep in love
And I forgot we're supposed to be right here
Ain't nobody next, nobody next

There ain't no time [?] I'll be true (I'll be true, baby)
And I'd be fine like [?] truth

Do you believe in fairy tales just like I do
Well this one's for real because it's me and you

And baby, I just wanna back in
Ain't gotta go too fast with it
And I know it's taking long
But baby we can be straight cash with it
Get [?] split it
Yeah I know it's taking long but...

Baby it'll be worth it
You know we deserve this, yeah
It'll be perfect, for you

Wait till you see what happens next
I'm gon' give you my heart
You ain't gon' give it back
We gon' fall deep in love
And I forgot we're supposed to be right here
Ain't nobody next, nobody next
