

Can't Feel Anything

Glitterer

Both of my hands fell asleep
Now I can't feel anything
Everything's just out of reach
Can't even touch a memory

Trying to be present
Trying to be here
Trying to forget it's all unclear
I'll forget it all
If I forget the way
I waste moments as I hesitate

Both of my hands fell asleep
Now I can't feel anything
Everything's just out of reach
Can't even touch a memory
