

Certainty

Glitterer

Carrying curtains
Concealing certain
Moments that burden
I feel a burning

Unbothered by fate
Can't even speak straight
I sing about it
Yeah, I sing about it

If I could say
What I'm feeling with certainty
I'd write it down
And throw it all away

I draw them closed
Make sure that nobody knows
I keep it close
I've got nothing to show

If I could say
What I'm feeling with certainty
I'd write it down
And throw it all away
