

Destiny

Glitterer

Touch the flame
Scream my name without thinking
Hear the sound it makes
I'm wondering
If my fate's caught on up in syllables
That's strange

I didn't want it to be this way
I didn't want it, that's why it's destiny

Taste the rain
Remind myself that it's okay
I'm not to blame, I'm innocent
As long as I'm the one who's pulling all the strings

I didn't want it to be this way
