

Forever Two And Three

Glitterer

What's it mean?
Trying to understand eternity
It's like a dream
One that will never go away
Never go away
Never go away
I feel insane

Think it's all necessity
It haunts me like a memory
Because we all live so selfishly
Count to forever two and three
It's nothing to do with me
I want endings
