

Half Truth

Glitterer

I used to worry I did not exist
Now I don't care, I'm just a hypocrite
It's not that I have changed
I guess I'll always stay the same

There's only truth in distance
I'm only inconsistent

Nothing's ever more than just pretend
It doesn't matter what is my intent
Everybody lives to tell a lie
I say good morning when I mean goodnight

Another day, I must repeat
Another half truth do I speak
I can't separate the two
It's what brings me close to you
