No One There

Glitterer

I used to see myself in you
Guess I was blind
I'll read the letters just to prove
I see just fine

There's no one there
There's no one there
Thought you were right around, but
There's no one there

I'm too old
For misplaced trust
Avoiding eye contact
And losing touch

There's no one there
There's no one there
Thought you were right around, but
There's no one there
