

Subjunctive

Glitterer

Understand, understood
It depends on how I do
Left a door open, it's true
Just for you

What's written on my face
Reads backwards in space
Your own thoughts in my mirror
Make it real

What does it mean
What does it mean
Not up to me
What does it mean

What can I do
What can I do
I'm lost on you
What can I do

Is this what's real?
Is this what's real?
Trying to describe what I feel

But never knowing
If it's true
