

Crawling Saviour

Gloomy Grim

I dug a hole into the ground deep enough I can not be found

I lay to rest to hide myself from this world of lies

Deep down here, only worms with me
They crawl upon my body
I feel warmth, which I have never felt before Finally I feel free

Slithering, crawling Saviour
Slime turns me to soil

Slithering, crawling Saviour
Save me from turmoil

Hypocrite people with hypocrite minds now left behind
Few sparks of hope were eaten away
This is The Only Choice.

The day turned to night only shadows ruled my mind
