

Impressive Physical Sight

Gloomy Grim

Strong feeling came to my head as I watched The Pond of Black The Mist floats above it even the night was clear

Something strange well up otherwise the surface was calm It looked like no animal, nor a man, more like abomination of myself

Mesmerizing...

Impressive physical sight,
myself without a shell

That is how I look inside and so do we all I suddenly saw the beauty of it and I started to run towards

It gladly accepted me
and we blend in together
We became One again

We are the earth
We are the water
We are the air
We are the fire

We are all living, dying
and not yet born

What man
has created,
man can Destroy.
