

Trust Issues

GloRilla

(Macaroni made it)

I got trust issues, that's why I don't trust niggas
'Cause ninety-nine percent of them some fuck niggas
Yeah, I know I got trust issues, that's why I don't trust bitches
They quick to stab you in your back, I'm quick to cut a bitch
I got trust issues, trust is fucked up
Everybody for theyself, I don't know what's up
And any nigga came across me was a buster
And if I call that bitch my friend, I gotta trust her
Yeah, I know I got trust issues

Can't trust no bitch, so I stay to myself
Independent bitch, nigga, fuck your help
When I was down bad, everybody had left
I told 'em 'bout my dream, everybody had slept
I trusted one chick, she had knew all my secrets
Confide in a ho thinkin' that she was gon' keep 'em
Shit got bad, turned on me at my weakest
But I ain't gon' lie, shit cut me the deepest
I ain't got shit for a nigga but a middle finger
Where your ass was at when I used to be a penny pincher?
Niggas be hoes, I don't even want no dealings with you
I don't trust love, so I ain't catchin' feelings with you
And you hoes be slick like Rick, they'll cross you for some dick
Said it was your brother, but you turned around and fucked him
Damn, man, you bitches sick

I got trust issues, that's why I don't trust niggas
'Cause ninety-nine percent of them some fuck niggas
Yeah, I know I got trust issues, that's why I don't trust bitches
They quick to stab you in your back, I'm quick to cut a bitch
I got trust issues, trust is fucked up
Everybody for theyself, I don't know what's up
And any nigga came across me was a buster
And if I call that bitch my friend, I gotta trust her
Yeah, I know I got trust issues

I can't trust you far as I can fuckin' throw you
I'ma throw you off the bus, and I'ma act like I don't know you
Like how you bitches screamin', "Gang," fuckin' with them other hoes too?
They like bros before the hoes, but be fuckin' on your ho too, how that work
It's something going on in my head
Shit be going good, but I'm on the lookout for the bad
And I ain't never been in love, they be like, "Damn, that shit sad"
'Cause if a nigga play with me, I'm spendin' life up in the feds and that's on me, nigga

I got trust issues, that's why I don't trust niggas
'Cause ninety-nine percent of them some fuck niggas
Yeah, I know I got trust issues, that's why I don't trust bitches
They quick to stab you in your back, I'm quick to cut a bitch
I got trust issues, trust is fucked up
Everybody for theyself, I don't know what's up
And any nigga came across me was a buster
And if I call that bitch my friend, I gotta trust her

Yeah, I know I got trust issues

Yeah

That shit fucked up
