

Death of the First Earth

Gloryful

Run! Hide!
Try to escape, but there is no way to hide
Cracking the surface
The world is on fire
The new age begins
'cause of his highness' desire

New age has begun

Death to the earth, a new one reborn
Witnesses frozen for ages in time
Mankind decline, pray for mercy
'cause we're next in line
Reborn

Run! Hide!
Demons are warning of old earth inside
Defending what's hers
So little we are
Tearing it down
And we are bearing the scars

Sending the ancients to earth
New age, just has begun
Welcome to his new creation
All through chaos for this world
