

Magic Dragon

Gloryhammer

Riding my steel into faraway lands searching for dragon to claim back the throne into the forests of deepest Strathclyde where time no centuries has been foretold

A mighty warrior questing to valleys unknown

A village of wizards revealed me the way They saw it by scrying a magical ball enchanted chamber with mirror and fire defeat it and dragon would be the reward

To be the chosen one a hero must rise to the test

casting a spell on the mountains covering wizards in glory
flying through majestic skies searching for mighty powers
to defeat ultimate evil ride on the wings of a dragon
questing for the steel

Demon attacked me but then it was slain the dragon appeared and a battle was fight I spoke from the words of a powerful scroll and magical dragon became now allied

Mighty and glorios
he flies through the emerald skies

casting a spell on the mountains
searching for
mighty power
questing for the steel

Mighty and glorios

searching for

questing for the steel

searching for
questing for the steel
