

Sword Lord of the Goblin Horde

Gloryhammer

Sword Lord of the Goblin Horde
Black Knight of the Dwarven Caverns
We must find the hidden way
By the sword of the Lord of the Horde

Questing to the caverns, beneath the ancient ruins of Dundee
(Lost for centuries before the fall of Cowdenbeath)
Nuclear devastation, and toxic laser slime surrounding me
Warriors take heed!
Mighty Ser Proletius is guiding us below atomic stars
(Epic paladin, he battles for the powersteel)
Ralathor behind me, we step inside the tunnels to the dark
No turning back!

Led by ancestral light
The fire burning deep in my heart
To revive lost Kingdom of Fife
The Sword must ignite my path!

Sword Lord of the Goblin Horde
Black Knight of the Dwarven Caverns
We must find the hidden way
By the sword of the Lord of the Goblin Horde

Cosmic glyphs and sigils burning black
(Ancient symbols from the star lords of eternity)
Laser horses cry for homeland lost to destiny
(Laser horse of Kirriemuir)
The cavern shakes with ancient crystal fire, so dire
A goblin approaches from the shadowy murk - beware! I see him there!

If his sword should strike me, mighty heroes are defeat
Evil Wizards rewrite history
But the force of my Holy Hammer, will rage through time
This battle for our destiny is mine!

Sword Lord of the Goblin Horde
Black Knight of the Dwarven Caverns
We must find the hidden way
By the sword of the Lord of the Goblin Horde, prepare for war

Mighty prince, as decreed by the ancient code of goblins
I shall yield the secret of this blade only when bested in single combat!
But, know this! The path can only be revealed
If you take its knowledge to the grave!
Now, enough chatter... prepare for battle! En Garde!
