

Well I'm not sold on soulmates
But do believe in twist of fate
I don't believe in shootin' stars
But made a wish and here we are
But what if we're not meant to be?
What if dreams are meant for dreams?
I don't believe in being sad
So would you try to understand when I ask

If we fall apart
Who should I call to help me mend my heart?
If feelings fade and go their separate ways
Who'd be my light in dark?
Well I don't know
But what I do know is I hope they never do
I don't know who I'd be without you

I've always liked the way you think
I'll try to see your side of things when you ask
What could we be or better yet
What if we had never met at all? And

If we fall apart
Who would I call to help me mend my heart?
If feelings fade, we go our separate ways
Who'd be my light in dark?
Well I don't know
But what I do know is I hope we never do
I don't know who I'd be without

You and all your little things
You've taught me love, you make me sing
I wonder if you'll ever know the truth
That you and all the things you do
Put every piece of me in two
And if we part forever, I'll be blue
But if we decide to separate
Before I go, I've gotta say that

If we fall apart
I'll be right here to help you mend your heart
If feelings fade, we go our separate ways
I'll be your light through dark
And even though I'll know you're not alone
One thing'll still be true
I don't know who I'd be without
How would I even breathe without
I don't know who I'd be without you
