Empty Now

Gnash

(Empty now)
Like a forty ounce you bought me out
Turned around
I'm empty now (empty now)
What goes around, comes around, turns around
I'm empty now (empty now)

You and me, we're made to go together
If you don't see that, I don't see us getting better
I let you wear my sweater and we made it through the weather
I just hope that you remember what I wrote in all those letters
Cause in all of those notes I wrote that you gave me all my hope back
So say how you're feeling, don't hold back
We'll be fine soon and you know that
Don't want to take us back to being strangers
But right now, I think it's probably worse if I just stay here
But regardless we both lay here, I've got nothing else to say dear
So we make up and we make clear that fighting doesn't make fair

Just hear me out, help me out, don't call me out
Just make me proud
You had your doubts, we made it out, hmm hmm
So lost and found

(Empty now)
Like a forty ounce you bought me out
Turned around
I'm empty now (empty now)
What goes around, comes around, turns around
I'm empty now (empty now)

Nothing feels worse than having nothing to say
Nothing heals more than having nothing but space
A thought of me a day keeps the feelings at bay
It'll all be okay if you give it a day
Spend all day building it just to dismantle it
Candle-lit dinners with feelings we're handling
I'm only slamming it to rock these sandals
And talk about planning shit
Like times we had and shit
Fear of abandonment
I don't think I would handle it if you decided it was best
To leave me with these bandages
Nobody likes panicking
So really what's happening?
How you always managing to make me feel sad again?

Just hear me out, help me out, don't call me out
Just make me proud
You had your doubts, we made it out, hmm hmm
So lost and found

Like a forty ounce you poured me out
Turned around, I'm empty now
(Empty now)
What goes around comes around
Turned around, I'm empty now

(Empty now)

I can still see your face
And I can still smell the rain
I just drove by your place
For the twentieth time today
I can still see your face
And I can still smell the rain
I just drove by your place
And I just start off the days when

Like a forty ounce you poured me out
Turned around, I'm empty now
(Empty now)
What goes around comes around
Turned around, I'm empty now
(Empty now)
Like a forty ounce you poured me out
Turned around, I'm empty now
(Empty now)
What goes around comes around
Turned around, I'm empty now
(Empty now)

Like a forty ounce you poured me out
Turned around, I'm empty now
