

granola bars

Gnash

Hello, the Sun is coming up in Yellowstone
See it on our Apple TV
I don't know how it happened but it happened to me
From fishin' with my cat to MTV on repeat
But I had a dream last night, we'd never beamed so bright
We were swimmin' in the sea at night
All we needed was a theme song
Peanut butter and somebody I could lean on if

Another Saturday night
I get a little less higher
26 years old
But already wanna retire
I'm so sick of this house, stuck on this couch
Let's set it on fire
If outta nowhere, what if I said

Let's leave our plans at home and get out of the city
Sit on the hood of my 2000 E350
We'll split granola bars and dance 'til we get dizzy
I'm going nowhere, are you coming with me?

You ever been to every national park
Sleeping under the stars?
Can't say that I have
Make a plan, grab a map, we can camp
Listening to Bon Iver in the car
I'd trade my house, my clothes and my friends, my shoes
Anything to end up anywhere with you
I go outside and panic, can't usually stand it
But even when I'm freaking out, you make it romantic
Head to CVS and we can pick me out a pair of socks
Water, coffee, and a couple of bags of Nature Valley bars
Hide under a blanket when it's raining with the cats and dogs
Speaking languages only we know
Where do we go next?
'Cause all that I know is
I don't wanna do this alone
Wherever we go
Whenever I'm with you, I'm home

Let's leave our plans at home and get out of the city
Sit on the hood of my 2000 E350
We'll split granola bars and dance 'til we get dizzy
I'm going nowhere, are you coming with me?
To Arizona where we'll get lost in the desert
Skip Colorado 'cause we only brought one sweatshirt
Hit every diner Guy Fieri said was shitty
I'm going nowhere, are you coming with me?

Are you, are you coming, coming?
Wish upon a comet, comet
This card'll make me vomit, darling
I'm going nowhere, are you coming with me?

Another Saturday night we probably won't remember
Eating Trader Joe's rice in a one-bath rental

What if I left right now?
Well if I do, you would miss me
I'm going nowhere, are you coming with me?
