Me Time

Gnash

You hit my line at 3 AM
But I'm too busy sleeping
I don't mind, it's popping lou
Don't care that it's the weekend
Finally figure out
I'm hella anxious for a reason
Always at a hundred
And forget to stop and breathe, yeah

I'm tired I'm going insane, yeah
Sick of feeling the same old way
You hit my line at 3 AM
But I'm too busy sleeping

I just need some me time
Wasted all my free time
Send my love to all the guys
I'ma see y'all next time
Girl, it's so not personal
I just can't pretend
I just need some me time
Need to clear my head

I just need some time, time, time
I just need some time, time, time
I just need some

Me time, me time [?] TV time
Clear my mind, you hit my life, I hit the decline
That don't mean I don't love me some you and me time
It just means I need to breathe three times

I need some alone time
I'll be on my own time
Little peace of my mind to find
I don't like my alone time
Meditate and elevate
Spaghetti with the bowl and Ye
Son if you ever need the same
Don't hesitate to say

I just need some me time
Wasted all my free time
Send my love to all the guys
Girl, it's so not personal
I just can't pretend
I just need some me time
Need to clear my head

I just need some time, time, time
I just need some time, time, time

Inhale, exhale, repeat
Inhale, exhale
Need to meditate on nothing

Yeah, yeah, I just need to chill
Schooling all my IG
I be caught up in the trills
Pull up on some Netflix
And get caught in my feels

Yeah, what's the deal? Oh
Head on my pillow like KO
Yeah, on the floor like J-Lo
Gone like, "Where my day go?"

You hit my line at 3 AM
But I'm too busy sleeping, yeah

I just need some me time
Wasted all my free time
I just can't pretend
Need to clear my head

I just need some time, time, time
I just need some time, time, time
