

ROMANCE IS DEAD

Gnash

I left my shirt on your bed
I hope it's fine I'll
Just get a new one instead

They say that romance is dead
Then tell me why you
Still live rent free in my head

I took apart the remote
Removed the batteries so I'd Stop watching your favorite show

I'd say it sucks but you know
I just can't get enough of it
Now I can't watch it alone

You're filling my mind with nonsensical
Ideas all the time it's so typical
I took a photograph of
The picture on the back of
An 80s Subaru that made me think of you

There's something
In the way that nothing ever lasts for sure
Like every New Year's Day spent
Fucked up in my basement
Everything is so obscure

It's like my diamond skyline is a fever dream it's Too bad all my friends are married
And I'm wasted trying to erase it
But if there's one thing I don't know for sure
It's that romance is dead

You were my Cinderella in grey
I think about you like almost every day
Well I held the door for you
Bought you flowers too
Heard you found a new dude
I don't wanna know
If you let me let me go
You're wasting my time

You're filling my mind with nonsensical
Ideas all the time it's so typical
I took a photograph of
The picture on the back of
An 80s Subaru that made me think of you

There's something
In the way that nothing ever lasts for sure
Like every New Year's Day spent
Fucked up in my basement
Everything is so obscure

It's like my diamond skyline is a fever dream it's
Too bad all my friends are married

And I'm wasted trying to erase it
But if there's one thing I don't know for sure
It's that romance is dead
