Text Talk Touch

Gnash

Lately I been on some LOL, SMH
Smiley, smiley, kissy face
Hot emoji, you don't know me
But you know I love the chase
It's been simple conversation
How you doing, how's your day?
Any plans for the weekend?
We should speak if that's okay

So call me
If you get a minute to spend, I'm just saying
No hurries, no worries, till them I'll be waiting
I'm holding this hole in my chest but I'm patient
I'm patient

It just takes time, yours, mine
I'm sure that we can trust where this is going
From the drinks, dimes, late nights
To feeling we can trust where this is going
From the text to call to show up
Smile and talk to kissing
Corridor to get some
To waking up and in love, yeah it just
Takes time, yours, mine
I'm sure that we can trust where this is going

Yeah-yeah
Trust where this is going

I been on some hey, how's your day
Hope your meeting went okay
Miss you bad, miss your face
Maybe we should get away
I was thinking we could take a
Long vacation to Jamaica
You've been patient, I've been waiting
You deserve it, I'm just saying, yeah
All of the dreaming that we could do
From sleeping in bed for a week or two
Do not disturb when they clean the room
It's nothing new to me and you
And when you're hanging with your friends
Maybe we could play pretend
You say, "I'll be home in ten"
You know how this story ends

It just takes time, yours, mine
I'm sure that we can trust where this is going
From the drinks, dimes, late nights
To feeling we can trust where this is going
From the text to call to show up
Smile and talk to kissing
Corridor to get some
To waking up and in love, yeah it just
Takes time, yours, mine
I'm sure that we can trust where this is going

Oh, we're falling, falling
From you to me to us
Falling, falling
From text to talk to touch
Falling, falling
From you to me to us
Yes, falling, falling
Mmh-hm-hm

It just takes time, yours, mine
I'm sure that we can trust where this is going
From the drinks, dimes, late nights
To feeling we can trust where this is going
From the text to call to show up
Smile and talk to kissing
Corridor to get some
To waking up and in love, yeah it just
Takes time, yours, mine
I'm sure that we can trust where this is going

I trust where this is going
So show me where it's going, yeah
