Doesn't Really Matter

Go:Audio

It's so clear to me
The dry tears etched upon your face tell me.
I've nothing left to prove
I tried so hard to make this work for you.

Coz all those times that we had
I never questioned why, in the end
You think it really matters.

Breaking down all those times
Will someone tell me, think I'm going blind
It doesn't really matter.

It's nothing new to me
Left alone here by myself to wait.

The seasons come, the seasons change
Nothing ever stays the same
Searched to you directly the wrong way.

Coz all those times that we had
I never questioned why, in the end
You think it really matters.

Breaking down all those times
Please someone tell me, think I'm going blind
It doesn't really matter.

(Aaaahhhhh)

Coz all those times that we had
I never questioned why, in the end
You think it really matters.

(Aaaahhhhh)

Breaking down all those times
Will someone tell me, think I'm going blind
You think it really matters.

(Aaaahhhhh)

Breaking down all those times
Will someone tell me, think I'm going blind
It doesn't really matter.
