You're Your Worst Enemy

I laughed at you You grinned so nervously You're frightened of me. You're scared to tell me What you really think What's really on your mind? I didn't know, but now I've learned I'm laughing now It's so funny to me 'Cause your conscience won't stop Bugging you You're so easy to read I can't help but think You're your worst enemy You're your worst enemy You're your worst enemy So why don't you let me be ?

You think you can change If you wanted to But you're stuck you see If you think you are fine It's just a lie Selfish as can ? be. In the end, you're like the rest Still lost at sea And the storm you fear Is only you, so let it be ? And let go of me

You're your worst enemy (c'mon) You're your worst enemy (you are) You're your worst enemy ? (I can't help but think)
