

Better Off

Go-Jo

Never did it cross my mind
The nights you never came home
I guess I didn't read the signs?
Your ring wasn't always on

You didn't think that I would know but hey
Who's the fool right now?
You fucked a friend for his own revenge
Now, you want me back?
No way

I'll be running for miles up mountains high to get away from you
Leaving you was hard then realised anythings better than you

I've wasted all this time on you
But I'm glad you ain't coming back
Love is hurt, it hurts to learn
To stay away from girls like that

You didn't think that I would know but hey
Who's the fool right now?
You fucked a friend for his own revenge
And you want me back?
No way

I'll be running for miles up mountains high to get away from you
Leaving you was hard then realised anythings better than you

I tried to keep us together
But you weren't in it forever
If I could change one thing in life
It'd be the day we met

You fucked a friend for his own revenge
Now, you want me back?
No way

I'll be running for miles up mountains high to get away from you
Leaving you was hard then realised anythings better than you
I'm better off now
I'm better off without you
I'm better off now
I'm better off now
