

Cry About

Go-Jo

Think I found a good one
Someone that I could love
She's the one that I should want
On my right she's sleeping
I'm staring at the ceiling
Cause you're the one my minds still on

It's kinda funny
I kinda miss it
All of the drama and the sleepless nights with you
It's kinda funny
And kinda twisted
But I'd do anything for one last fight with you

Cause for the first time everything's going alright
So I don't know why I've still got you on my mind
She's got everything I need right now
I want you cause I want something to cry about
Something to cry about (Oh-oh-oh)

She wants to understand me
Wants to meet my family
Everything that's right is wrong
I'm jealous of the movies
Watching what we could be
Cause you're the one my minds still on

It's kinda funny
I kinda miss it
All of the drama and the sleepless nights with you
It's kinda funny
And kinda twisted
But I'd do anything for one last fight with you

Cause for the first time everything's going alright
So I don't know why I've still got you on my mind
She's got everything I need right now
I want you cause I want something to cry about

For the first time everything fell into place
So how come I keep wondering if you're ok
She's got everything I need right now
I want you cause I want something to cry about

Something to cry about (Oh-oh-oh)
Something to cry about (Oh-oh-oh)
Something to cry about (Oh-oh-oh)
