

There was a bluebeat playing
On the night you set me free
There was a blue sky falling
Nothing hurts like a memory
There was a blue wind blowing
All our promises away
Turning the midnight hour
Into the longest day...

My heart will have a bluebeat
'til you come back to me...
Baby you gave my heart a bluebeat
And now I know that I am gonna cry
'til you come back to me
That's how it's gonna be

There was a new star shining
On the night that I met you
Just like a blue moon rising
Too good...too good to be true
My heart will have a bluebeat
'til you come back to me...baby
You gave my heart a bluebeat
And now I know that I am gonna cry

I remember every word
Every little whisper
You walk into my world
And then you dance away
I just closed my eyes and you were gone

You know there was a bluebeat playing
On the night we said goodbye
Let it rain forever
This flame will never die...
