

Faded

Go West

Going down sinking into the blue
I'm no good when I'm this way
I could drown trying to hold on to you
You already got away
Didn't you say that I was your light?
Like a new star in the midnight sky

I guess I faded
Now you look through me like I'm no one
When I'm standing right here
And I feel like I might disappear
Any hope I held onto
Any dream of me and you
Has faded

Giving up isn't easy for me
I don't want to let you go
I'm in love I don't want to be free
You are all I want to know
Didn't you tell me I was the one?
Didn't I burn brighter than the sun?

I guess I faded
Now you look through me like I'm no one
When I'm standing right here
And I feel like I might disappear
Any hope I held onto
Any dream of me and you
Has faded

And I know it's time to walk away
I know there's nothing more to say
I've already faded
