

It's after midnight and I'm lost in you
Nobody ever made me feel the way you do
It won't be long before the day is new
But I don't want to close my eyes

Cause every minute that you're here with me
Is one more minute that I'm where I want to be
And though there's almost nothing left of me
I don't want to close my eyes..

I want to watch you glow
Cause I can sleep tomorrow
But baby tonight
I want to watch you glow
So you dream sweet
And I'll turn out the light
So I can watch you glow

Tangled together feeling skin on skin
I want to take you to a place you've never been
And when you whisper you're surrendering
I don't want to close my eyes

I want to watch you glow
'cause I can sleep tomorrow
But baby tonight
I want to watch you glow
So you dream sweet
And I'll turn out the light

Just kiss me one more time
Baby I know it's late
The sandman calls
And he won't wait
So lie back in my arms
And I won't let you go
I want to watch you glow

I don't want to close my eyes
I want to watch you glow
