

Little Caesar

Go West

Across the sea
To be born again
And stand as tall
As any other man
Now you're number one
On the wanted list
Oblivious
The contract's out on you

Your land of hope and glory
Is shooting in the dark
Don't let this be the end of little caesar

In the chair
At the old house
Trigger-happy philistines
Won't hear a word you say

Surrendering
To the blue crusade
Sing the song they want to hear
The hollywood nineteen
