

Man On Fire

Go West

I walked the world alone
I was rolling like a stone
A heart without a home
I saw cities all the same
Full of faces with no names
I was searching for the flame inside
A flame that almost died..

But one touch from you
Man on fire
Whatever you do takes me higher
I'm shot up with desire
Man on fire

Set sail on the ocean wide
I was driftwood on the tide
Reaching for the other side
Crossed the desert through the night
Between the shadows and the light
I was waiting for the sun to rise
I saw it in your eyes..

Just one touch from you
Man on fire
Whatever you do takes me higher
Out of a lonely blue sky
I'm shot up with desire
Man on fire

Now I'm somebody else
A stranger to myself
I've never felt this way before
You gotta give me more

'cause one touch from you
Man on fire
Whatever you do takes me higher
Out of a lonely blue sky
Just one touch from you
Man on fire

Now I feel
