

Never Enough

Go West

Since the day I was born
Had the feeling something's wrong
With my circuitry
Something shorting inside
Cause I'm never satisfied
Will I ever be?
I know only fools believe in picture perfect love

Got a sign on my wall
Says 'you can't have it all
But try anyway
I keep wondering if there's Something better somewhere
On some other day
I can't even tell you what it is I'm dreaming of

But it's never enough
I can't help myself
It's never enough
What's a man to do?
I can't help it
I can't help it

Will I find state of grace,
Is there something out of place
In my chemistry?
Cause I can't give it up
Always one more for luck
I can't let it be
I know only fools believe in picture perfect love

But it's never enough
I can't help myself
It's never enough
What's a man to do?

Give me just one more, just one more, just one more
I won't be happy till I'm face down on the floor
Face down on the floor
I can't help it

I can't even tell you what it is I'm dreaming of
But it's never enough
