

Enough

Goapele

Do you ever feel like you're not enough
When you've done all you can
And it's out of your hands

'Cause I've been setting the vibe right
Keeping my thing tight, doing it all
Putting in work, I'm paying the bills on time
Running on a treadmill
While it looks like a standstill
But—

Life's too fast, can't keep up, where's this going
All I need is some loving to show me
'Cause lately the less of me
Is getting the best of me

I don't wanna feel like I'm not enough
(Enough, enough)
Maybe I'm doing way too much
Where will it all end up?
Do you ever feel like you're not enough
(Enough, enough)
When you've done all you can
(Done all you can)
And it's out of your hands
(Out of your hands)

'Cause I've been, keeping the mood light
Thinking ahead and I'm spinning my wheels
Betting you'll be right half of the time
'Til I'm fighting for what's mine
Crying at night
Trying to prove I'm worthy
Throwing doubt into a spiral

Life's too fast, I move slow but I'm growing
Yeah, I've been here before, where's this going? (Oh-oh)
'Cause lately the less of me
Is getting the best of me

And I don't wanna feel like I'm not enough
(Enough, enough)
Seems like I'm doing way too much
Where will it all end up?
Do you ever feel like you're not enough
(Enough, enough)
When you've done all you can
(Done all you can)
And it's out of your hands
(Out of your hands)
I don't wanna feel like I'm not enough
And you say I'm doing way too much
Where will it all end up?
Do you ever feel like you're not enough
(Enough, enough)
When you've done all you can
(Done all you can)

And it's out of your hands
(Out of your hands)

Oh
When is enough?
When you can't measure up
I don't wanna feel like I'm not enough
