Perfect

Goapele

I see you on my front line
But I wish that you were on my side
Too many souls have died, pretending like we're all right

Wish I could seep into your veins, take the pain away
And be your great escape, but I'm not a heroine
I just have this song again
Cause nothin' is perfect, in this crazy world
I wish I was perfect, but I'm just a girl
They say choose your battles babe
So I'm fighting for you, a-aah a-aah

(Dance, no surrender
Fighting for our lives
Dance, no surrender
Can't goes this fight)

Yeah, I'm fighting for you

(Fighting for you
Fighting for you
Fighting for you
For you)

No more bullets on a summer night
Watch the shooting suns light up the sky, just feel the evening breeze
Be who you wanna be
I wanna life you up when you feelin' low
I'll break your fall, never let go
But I'm not gravity
I'll give you space to breathe
Cause nothin' is perfect, in this crazy world
I wish I was perfect, but I'm just a girl
They say choose your battles babe
So I'm fighting for you, a-aah a-aah

(Dance, no surrender
Fighting for our lives
Dance, no surrender
Can't goes this fight)

Yeah, I'm fighting for you

(Fighting for you
Fighting for you
Fighting for you
For you)

Rise up, come on, come on, cause' I'm convince it's time for us to shine
We gon' light sky up like a phoenix tonight
So, Rise up, come on, come on, cause' I'm convince it's time for us to shine
We own the night, yeah, we own the night
We own the night, yeah, we own the night

(Dance, no surrender
Fighting for our lives)

They say choose your battles babe
So I'm fighting for you, a-aah a-aah, aaah!
