

Time Heals

Goapele

Time heals all things
And I know that I felt some type of way before
But I slowly feel it shifting at my core
Scars are fading
And the ghosts from the past
Don't haunt me anymore
The storm and rain washed away
The pain that I endured
Just as the sun will rise each morning
Just like the day returns to night
Without our say

I'm finally trusting in the knowing
That time heals all things
Time heals all things
It's worth waiting for
Seasons changing

New roads to explore
Now I can feel the ground beneath me
I walk a path
And it appears with steps I take
Maybe one day things will come easy
What if the struggles placed
Were just to test my strength

Cause the pressure's on
I know a change is coming
It's getting late
Grace wrap your arms around me
Sure as the sun will rise each morning
Sure as the day returns to night
With out our say

I'm finally trusting in the knowing
That time heals all things
Time heals all things
It's worth waiting for
Seasons changing

But time heals all things
I know, I know, the sun will rise
Oh the sun will rise
Oh the sun will rise
Oh the sun will rise

The sun will rise
