

Can I Resist

Gob

So what became of you why did you disappear?
I heard you came looking for me you had something to share all I say how can I resist, I won't look back there's nothing to stop me all I say how can I resist, don't look back you'll hello it's me again I'm sorry to bother you
you know more than ever so what became of you why did you disappear?
I need you to show me how it's supposed to feel
