

What to Do

Gob

Something's on my mind but you know I'm find sit around out here and think.

Do you even know what's going on?

Cause I sure don't have a clue with you anymore.

Some thing's change sometimes that's right, it's me and maybe I'll use this wasted space this time more and more efficiently.

Do you even know what's going on?

Cause I sure don't have a clue with what to do with you anymore
