God Complex

Already losing our minds
Already in a state of decline
Tell from your eyes heavy lies the crown
Where will you be when your world comes crashing down

Where will you be when it all comes crashing down
The divide between grows wider
You are no authority

Your eyes sewn shut
With your hands tied behind your back
But you won't fucking quit

Make our suffering great again

Insignificant piece of fucking shit
Cunt you prey on fucking ignorance

Already losing our minds
Already in a state of decline
Tell from your eyes heavy lies the crown
We are doomed to death by a thousand cuts
