

Goodbye

Godhead

You never listen to a single word I say
But if you heard me you'd ignore me anyway
I fight a battle with you every single day
I guess you'll never know the price I have to pay

Why try?
This lullaby won't dry my eye

Goodbye cruel lie, your time is over
Goodbye cruel lie, your sound is silent now

The clever workings of a haunted mind leaves me maligned
A ceaseless cavern of regret entwined, panic redefined It's not a question of truth, it's just a matter of â
