

Trapped In Your Lies

Godhead

You, you can try to keep me down,
Hold me under, watch me drown,
Given half a chance to breath,
I know I can break this tragedy

Nothing you can say, nothing you can do,
Gotta get away, get away from you, as I look to the sky,
I'm trapped in your lies, you pushed me too far this time,
I've opened up my eyes, I see your demise through your disguise
this time,
I'm breaking down your lies

Now, now you try to set me free,
Let your guilt wash over me,
Given half a chance to see,
I know this is just concessionary

Nothing you can say, nothing you can do,
Gotta get away, get away from you,
As I look to the sky,
I'm trapped in your lies, you pushed me too far this time,
I've opened up my eyes, I see your demise through your disguise
this time,
I'm breaking down your lies

I'm trapped in your lies, you pushed me too far this time,
I've opened up my eyes, I see your demise through your disguise
this time,
I'm breaking down your lies

I'm trapped in your lies, you pushed me too far this time,
I've opened up my eyes, I see your demise through your disguise
this time,
I'm breaking down your lies
